Executive Pastor

Dr. Christopher Leevy Johnson,

Brookland Northeast Campus Pastor

Brookland Family and friends, as we prepare to celebrate both our Pastor's 50th Anniversary Celebration along with dedication of the Christian Learning Center (CLC), one cannot help but reflect on the divine orchestration of our Creator! During a time of when many churches and business alike have closed their door and struggled to remain, I strongly believe the Brookland Church has remained alive and well largely in part to the purpose God has placed on the inside of our Pastor and his continual ability to both declare and demonstrate this God-ordained purpose to a group of believers who have grabbed ahold of the Vision.

In Psalm 71:17-18 NIV, David's pen writes a prayer that one cannot help but see manifested as we look at the Pastoral ministry and the mission of Pastor Charles B. Jackson, Sr. as it states, "Since my youth, God, you have taught me, and to this day I declare your marvelous deeds. Even when I am old and gray, do not forsake me, my God, till I declare your power to the next generation, your mighty acts to all who are to come." No doubt 50 years ago, our beloved Pastor could not grasp the vastness of his impact on the Kingdom. An impact that extends beyond the walls of the church, beyond the beautiful buildings that would be erected as a testament to God's glory, beyond the pews filled with countless worshippers, now beyond the digital reach of our broadcast services around the world, and directly reach the heart of multiple generations of believers with the same effectiveness!

As the Youth and Teen Pastor of the Brookland Baptist Church, I am both humbled and honored to serve as a part of mission to build the next generation of believers because that is just what our Pastor did for me. As a young freshman at the University of South Carolina, I had the opportunity to hear one message from our Pastor at our fraternity's regional conference where Pastor Jackson was the keynote speaker during a prayer breakfast. As many can imagine, a prayer breakfast is not the first place where most 18-year-old college students would be found; however, God knew that I would need to hear the clarion call from Heaven to leadership and service based on Godly principles that Pastor Jackson shared on that day! From then, I began listening to the radio broadcast of the Brookland Baptist Church and always admired the practical preaching of our Pastor not knowing that God had already orchestrated this connection for such a time as this!

Now as we find ourselves still engulfed in a global pandemic, a time when racial injustices have continued to plague our society, and when many members of the Millennial Generation and Generation Z (*i*Generation) have questioned the teachings of their faith, we at the Brookland Church should be excited about what God has prepared us to do and who God has called us to be! We have been called to be Builders! For five decades the Brookland Baptist Church has been building and this "building" is more than the physical buildings and the operations that both serve and employ countless people of our communities. We have been crafting the building blocks of faith in a generation that is able to see that with God all things are possible. We have been building a space (physical and intangible) where youth and teens of all walks of life can feel safe and welcome to learn and grow in the ways of God while experiencing the love of God firsthand! Isn't it an exciting time to be a part of the team of builders!

As we take this time to be intentional about honoring God for our Pastor, let us thank God for his years of service, his years of giving, and his years of pouring into us during various seasons of our lives. Although he may have a few more gray hairs than remembered and more candles during his birthday celebrations, let us be sure to thank God that He has sustained our Pastor to lead us in building! One cannot deny that God has remained faithful to his Word just like with David and has both prepared and preserved our Pastor to declare his Power to the Next Generation!

Let us be intentional about showing our Pastor how grateful we are for his impact on our lives, our children, and all generations to come! I encourage all partakers of the Brookland Baptist Church to continue to support the vision of our Pastor and find an area/areas where we can assist in building!

God has provided favor to our leader and ministry for 50 years and He has aligned it for us to be a part of what is He is doing in the Kingdom for such a time as this!

Yours in Christ, Elder Mark Richard Youth and Teen Pastor
