The Meaning and Purpose of Lent

By Dr. James A. Jamison

Many of us have heard people every year say, “they’re giving something up for Lent.” Have you ever asked yourself what were they talking about and what did it really mean?

Lent is a time during the church calendar year often described as a time of preparation and an opportunity to go deeper with God. This means that it’s a time for a personal reflection that prepares people’s hearts and minds for Good Friday and Easter.

Let’s explore what happens during the Lenten season and why. The Lenten season begins with Ash Wednesday; during this time many liturgical churches observe it by placing a black cross on their foreheads of ashes symbolizing our grief for the things we’ve done wrong. It is followed by what we call Holy week which includes: Maundy Thursday which is the day before Good Friday. It commemorates the night before Jesus died, when He shared the Passover meal with His closest friends and followers.

Good Friday is the day Christians remember Jesus’ death. The “Good” reflects how Jesus’ death was a sacrifice on our behalf so we can receive God’s forgiveness for our wrongs, or sins. Lent season culminates IN Easter Sunday, the joyful celebration of Jesus rising from the dead to give us the opportunity of eternal life.

There are three things in general in which people observe during Lent: prayer and fasting (abstaining from something to reduce distractions and focus more on God).

Prayer during Lent focuses on our need for God’s forgiveness. It’s also about repenting which is the turning away from our sins, and receiving God’s mercy and love.

Fasting, or giving something up, is a very common practice during Lent. There are various popular fasts these days like the Daniel fast and the Esther fast. The idea is that giving up something that’s a regular part of life, like eating dessert or watching your favorite television shows or spending time on facebook, twitter or Instagram. Those times could be an opportunity to spend more time with God. It can also be a time to show generosity by giving money or doing something good for others in a way to respond to God’s grace, generosity, and love.

During this season, in whatever way we choose to commemorate, let us do a self-inventory of where we are in our commitment to spending more time with God and showing love and generosity to a world that is so much in need of LOVE and GENEROSITY right now.
