A Deaf Myth: “Deaf People Can’t Play and Win In Sports”

A “Take Lessons” recent article stated: “Modern sports have changed to accommodate deaf athletes. In swimming or track, instead of hearing the signal to start, deaf athletes look for a flashing light or a waving flag. In baseball, the umpire yells and signs outs, strikes, and balls.” (Retrieved 15 April 2019)

The article (9 August 2017) further states: Deaf athletes have proven they can compete and win in amateur sports, deaf-only leagues, and pro sports at the highest levels.

In sports, the most critical senses are vision, touch, and hearing. So it would seem as if deaf people have only two-thirds of the active senses of hearing people, and therefore are at a competitive disadvantage.

This can be proven wrong for two reasons:

Deaf athletes can heighten their senses of touch and vision to concentrate deeper and longer than hearing athletes.

For everyone else, hearing can be a weakness if it makes us focus on the wrong sounds.

Notable Deaf Athletes & Accomplishments

Derrick Coleman, a Super Bowl winning fullback of the Seattle Seahawks

Tamika Catchings, a 10-time WNBA all-star who once posted a quadruple-double

Carl Morris, an 8-ball pool world champion

Luther Hayden Taylor, a winning pitcher for the New York Giants, whose entire team learned sign language to communicate with him

James Kyte, an NHL hockey player

Carlo Orlandi, an Olympic, gold winning boxer

Ashley Fiolek, the youngest female American National Motocross champion

Brad Minns, tennis player, coach, and fitness trainer

William Hoy, the first deaf baseball player who helped pioneer umpire hand signals to “hear” calls

Girl Scout Silver Award: Recycle, Reuse, Rejoice

On May 5th, 2019 the Girl Scouts of South Carolina Mountains to Midlands (GSSCMM) presented Jennifer Boone, Jessica Boone, Logan Davis and Alexis Ferrell with the Girl Scout Silver Award for their project; "RECYCLE, REUSE, REJOICE." Their Silver Award Project focused on the paper consumption of the Brookland Baptist Church with the printing of bulletins each Sunday morning. In an effort to RECYCLE they collected approximately 850 bulletins over the course of several months. At the conclusion of the collection period the Cadettes had pencils made from the REUSE of the paper bulletins. Let us all REJOICE for the diligent efforts put forth by these ladies of Girl Scout Troop 224 of the Brookland Baptist Church.

Youth and Teens Day 2019

Romanetha Picasso , Chair
Ryan Harris, Co-Chair

Youth and Teens Day 2019 Committee

As this year's chair and co-chair, each of us rejoices in who we are instead of who we were. We glimpse at the past only for future references. We lead a committee of teens that share our love for God, our generation, and the future for generations to come. Our theme celebrates the thought, "I Am Greater Than I Was." You are Greater Than you were! We are Greater Than we were! Our Future Holds Greatness! As Pastor Jackson has told us, "You were born for greatness" (Sermon, "Safe in God's House, January 17, 2016).

Parents Family and Friends, it is time to embrace and celebrate Youth & Teens Day 2019! The theme for this year is "I Am Greater Than I Was." The Scripture for this year's celebration is Ephesians 4:20-24 (NIV) "That, however, is not the way of life you learned, when you heard about Christ and were taught in him in accordance with the truth that is in Jesus. You were taught, with regard to your former way of life, to put off your old self, which is being corrupted by its deceitful desires; to be made new in the attitude of your minds; and to put on the new self, created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness". As in the past, we have a number of exciting events planned for the youth, teens, and their families including our Kick-off Bash, Mid-night Hoops, Skate Night, Family Carnival, Teen Retreat, Spiritual Bonfire, and activities for Children's Worship. Please click on the Youth & Teens Day link on Brookland's webpage for additional information. A complete calendar of events will be distributed during registration, which will be held in the Health and Wellness Center between worship services.
