AWARENESS MONTH

BIBLE STUDY WILL START WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 5TH ON THE WEST CAMPUS WITH PASTOR JACKSON!

VIRTUAL OR IN PERSON AT 7PM!

A promotional graphic for Bible Study. It features a large, open Bible in the background, with the Eiffel Tower visible on the right side. The text "Bible Study" is written in a large, gold, serif font, and "IS Back!" is written in a smaller, white, cursive font. Below this, a yellow banner reads "WEDNESDAY'S AT 7:00 PM!". To the right of the text is a portrait of Pastor Jackson, a Black man with a mustache, wearing a dark suit and a red and white striped tie. Below the banner, a paragraph of text describes the study's schedule. At the bottom, a yellow banner provides virtual access information, including social media icons for Facebook, YouTube, and a globe, followed by the website URL.

“October is Pastor Appreciation Month”

Excerpts from published article: “Pastor Appreciation by Samantha Decker.”

We can easily and far too often take our pastors for granted. It can be easy for us to criticize them on how good of a job they did on their sermon, saying things like:

- “I wasn’t a big fan of their sermon today.”
 - “I didn’t really connect with their sermon.”
- “I think they could have done a better job preparing or delivering their message.”

We far too often forget that they are human, and have a life, family and other responsibilities they have throughout the week. We can easily think that a pastor is just there to serve us and deliver a sermon that we want to hear and if either of these doesn’t go the way we want it to, we forget that our pastor also is pastoring an entire congregation. If we are not careful, we can fall victim to the spirit of entitlement where it becomes all about us.

Now, while this isn’t always the case and it may not be this extreme, it is something we all need to keep in consideration and remember that even if one person’s life is changed by the pastor’s message, then isn’t that what it’s all about?

The History Of Pastor Appreciation Day

Pastor Appreciation Day started as “Clergy Appreciation Day”, the idea of showing appreciation for your Clergy, Pastors, or Leaders is very Biblical and can be traced all the way back to Paul’s new testament letters. Paul mentions this idea in a number of different letters that he writes to the various churches. Paul says this in his first letter to Timothy,

“Let the elders who rule well be considered worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in preaching and teaching.” 1 Timothy 5:17 (English Standard Version).

Paul highlights the fact that our Pastors be considered worthy of double honor for assuming this role in His church and do it well. But, typically with double honor, you can expect double stress, this is why we need to make an even greater effort to celebrate and encourage those in leadership.

Clergy Appreciation Day/Pastors Appreciation Day was not commercialized until the early 1990’s, Hallmark Cards in 1992 and Focus On The Family led the charge in 1994 by making it a point to remind congregations to make the month of October special for their Pastor. Now with the growth of media and technology, the idea that sprang from Paul has now evolved and diffused into even more congregations around the world.

Pray For Your Pastor And With Your Pastor

Prayer is huge. Pray for your pastor daily, in your own quiet time. Pray for your pastor as the service begins. Pray for them as they enter the pulpit to teach. Beyond private prayer, start a prayer time with others in the church for the specific purpose of praying for your pastor.

Bless Your Pastor

LET US Bless Pastor Jackson this month and show appreciation to the BEST PASTOR IN THE WORLD! at: CashApp $PJ0307

Should I Be Screened for Lung Cancer?

Smoking is the main cause of lung cancer and the second most diagnosed cancer in Lexington County, South Carolina.

Detecting lung cancer early can reduce your risk of dying from it by 20 percent. Free lung cancer screenings, using low-dose CT scans similar to an X-ray, are available during November from Lexington Medical Center to those at high risk.

Mention you heard about this program through the Brookland Foundation

You may be eligible for a free lung cancer screening if you meet ALL the following criteria:

- Are between the ages of 55 and 77
- Are a current smoker or have quit within the past 15 years
- Have smoked at least one pack a day for 30 years or two packs a day for 15 years
- Have no signs or symptoms of lung cancer.

Find Out If You Qualify

Find out if you qualify for a free lung cancer screening by completing this online survey: LexMed.com/Screening. If you qualify, you will be contacted for an appointment.
