The mission of the Brookland Baptist Church is to proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ through Evangelism, Education and Economic empowerment.

Claudia G. Williams
Jubilee Choir Leader

Guide me, O thou great Jehovah, Pilgrims, through this barren land; I am weak, but thou art mighty, hold me with thy powerful hand. Hymn #99- 8s,7s,4s

In this 21st century of electronics, there is instant everything; Instagram, Twitter, and asking Siri or Google. The advancement in technology has allowed many avenues of communication like texting, but we have forgotten how to physically and audibly converse with our local elders who are the bridges that connect our past to our present and has brought us thus far. When our forefathers and foremothers endured the drudgery of being enslaved, Jim Crow, segregation, immoral and illegal injustices and heartache, they sang songs that brought comfort, hope and peace. I am proud and honored to have a lifelong membership of the Brookland Baptist Church and have a Pastor of one of the greatest churches in the universe, the Rev. Dr. Charles B. (Bless) Jackson, Sr. For more than 50 years Pastor Jackson, has led and guided the Brookland Baptist Church through the many phases of life and God's plan in our hometown of West Columbia, South Carolina. Pastor Jackson is a lover of Jubilee music and promises as long as he is Pastor there will always be a Jubilee Choir. Many churches have banished, disbanded and removed Jubilee Choirs over the years. No longer is this "type" of acapella style of singing respected or appreciated in some communities and congregations. Jubilee music has been referred to many times as salve melodies, slave or sorry songs. I remember hearing a teenager make mockery of the jubilee choir and the timbre of the music. I knew she didn't have an appreciation as yet, BUT in the future, time and life will give her an understanding and appreciation of the words, not just the catchy beat, most popular songs or artist produce now.

The Jubilee choir at Brookland Baptist will celebrate 106 years of rendering music on the 4th Sunday of September. I can remember as a young girl, hearing the Deacons, Deaconesses, and members of our Jubilee choir rocking and stomping their feet on the wooden floors to the rhythm of a song, preparing us for the worship service each Sunday. Long before we had musical instruments and knew how to read sheet music, the Jubilee choir sang songs of undocumented tunes. Many people today do not know how to line or raise a hymn or what shape notes are. Many don't know the meaning of when we say Hymn #99- 8s,7s,4s., what C. M. (Common Meter) is or when we pitch a song from our Jubilee sheet music that we are pitching shape notes.

Our Pastor, preacher, leader and teacher tells us that God is a rewarder of those who are faithful. Under Pastor Jackson's guidance he has managed to hold fast to our roots, remembering those who were before us, keeping us updated with the present and planning and preparing Brookland for the future. He has proven this to us time and time again with his sacrifice, leadership and how he has brought the small Brookland Church from Monticello Street, to the medium storefront church, to the mega church we see sitting on Sunset Blvd. and all the phases that God has blessed us with. Thank you Pastor Jackson for not leaving and bringing all of us along on this glorious journey and more importantly for keeping your charge.

A Charge to keep I have, A God to glorify who gave his Son my soul to save, and fit it for the sky. To serve the present age, my calling to fulfill, Oh may it all my powers engage to do my Master's will!

Hymn #454- S.M.
